or Cut. J. L. Power for his excell and our comwere record of the numbers of our comwere not severe.

But no duty did we dedge, no classer did we

After this defence of Mississippi,

That so we'll all resolve, on this giad Reunian With plory on their banners-its balo already There were partiting and and tender-yes, for- pany A. mothers, sisters, wives,
To their country they had pledged their fronor. Levely Southern main;
In those days of faintest promise, their faith was one their fives.

On the bloody field Manasses, and on some less. Their hope was like the star in the dark and with malarial poison by last summer's fever common foe. But, in my judgment, Missisto our race—
to our race—
In all the affairs of life, they're the sait, the saying grace!

to our race—
In all the affairs of life, they're the sait, the saying grace!

cannot be with you must win wrace your. The great success of the roads that have been commenced in various you say "we are confronted with a new party sections of Mississippi show what may be accomplished by energy, perseverence and plack. In those charging lines of grey, there was real and had and skill, and Forward was a word to which they and From the Louisiana Pelican.

Whose forms we ne'r should see in our sunny cal suffering I had determined to take no part land again;
The shorts of deating mother, of fend, devoted gentlemen, in their devotion to the bondholds stand on the same platform. I can under Married with the stidings of the fierce and cost unmerited censure on the State of Missis- a necessity in any State where both the Dem-But the oright the ideals of their hearts were lost to debate the question now before the Convension of debate the question now before the Convension of the gold standard of value and consequent tion, and at the same time hard back the assument in value of United States bonds

Maintain the solid front, and protect the broken which flows past this city.

To Louisiana I owe all the duty of an where the existence of a separate tires pack in the field.

The communicated their respect—he was to them a their bosoms. Gen, Jackson, with three thousand brave, As e'er a noble land to the cause of Freedom vance. At the storming of Monterey, Lieuten-

Ready to do battle for their own, their South-ern land;
There was Bradford, Abbey, Ralston, with their galiant boys in line.

consisting of only six thousand men, was op-econsisting of only six thousand Mexicans, and by the ablest commander Mexicoever had—when galiant boys in line,
That graced the noble column as they do my Gen. Taylor's army expected to be overwhelm-And Sanderson, of Louisiana—succeeded by cavalry made the last charge which threatened Who drew his men right well when fighting the complete discomfiture of our troops, Jefferwas to do; And there was Sergeant Elder, whose cheery, merry laugh.

Recalls this genial member of the non-commissioned staff.

And last, but not the least, was one owned.

For ready and so willing to defend their Southern land.

But there was Ridley, noble Captain, at Baker's Creek who fell.—
Of his kindness and his daring our boys were wont to tell:
And next was gallant Hooker, who at Vicksburg lost an arm,
Whose voice in war or peace, has such peculiar charm:
And Ratliff, on whom, ere long, the chief command did fall,
Impartial, conscientious, kind and courteous unto all:

A more can did in New York, where, according to his boast-falling as thick as hail, with his men falling wounded in great numbers by his side, and his color-bearer struck down, this brave Mississippian, grasping the Palmetto flag riddled to pieces and sprinkled all over with blood, was the first to mount the heights of Chapultepec, and, wiving the Palmetto flag, cheeved his followers on to a charge on the fleeing foe. This same Mississippian was the first at the Belen Gate; and this same falling to the attorney-general, he, by threats, intimidation and false imprisonment, took away the naturalization papers from thirty thousand American citizens, if the army is to be assembled at Washington to intimidate Congress in counting the electroral vote, and if naval vessels are to be used as prison ships where a kid-napped President-elect can be held against writes of babeas exput, then the question of currency would sink into insignificance with all he city of the Montezumass.

In partial, conscients as Davenport did in New York, where, according to his boast-all the clear to the attorney-general, he, by threats, intimidation and false intimidation and f

THE WEEKLY CLARION.

VOLUME XLII. JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, WEDNESDAY, JULY 16, 1879.

CITY SLIESCHHEERS, served by Currier. ... 2 50

See Names invariably discontinued at expiraalso love to tell.—

Of Corson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guided herself as much as in war. In the and vital issue of the day, and that the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guided herself as much as in war. In the
and vital issue of the day, and that the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guided herself as much as in war. In the
and vital issue of the day, and that the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guided herself as much as in war. In the
and vital issue of the day, and that the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, we would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, Wc would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, Wc would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, Wc would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, Wc would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, Wc would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, Wc would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, Wc would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, Wc would guide the softingle of Conson, Riser, Robb, McMillan, Rob RE UNION POEM.

RE-Union of Company A., First Mississippi tash Artillery, at Bolton, July 19th 1879. By J. L. Power, first Orderly St. By J. By re identified, and that he be requested to high the same Offered by Rev. Dr. Thos. Markburg, Regimental Couplain, and adoptional obey. From Snyder's Bluil to Warrenton, we know the ground right well.

And familiar we become with the sound of shot

And whole Vicksburg was invested, and rations became slin.

The weather being warm, we could afford to be quite thin.

The metals are the could afford to be quite thin.

The metals are the present bounded debt was a greater lead than the tax payors could bear, and at some time advocated an equitable adjustment makilful milkmaid whose overturned lamp pointed the great conflagration in Chicago. question still unsettled-the issue But the war has long been arer, and now again and many a noble Southrou had breathed away. As comrades in an honored cause, we how to its On the field of saddefeat, or maid the victor's And with mournful pleasure we may re. Letter of Hon, J. R. Chalmers on the To the present and the future let our steady gaze be cast.

With our weapons now of peace, our State in

Dav. Is the sentiment, I'm sure, of good old Comever here in time, (cour here in time).

In this glorious line of duty, we shall have the a part in almost every political canvass in mathers sisters wives.

In this glorious line of duty, we shall have the powerful aid of cuch wife and mother, sister—yea, each be glad to take an active part in this, which interest and im-widely known,

Their pluck, their skill, their valor, to the fee- In the trying times of war, they labored, man they had shown; prayed and planned this summer in the mountains and on the sea Theoretic in many things deficient, as fighters they Ab, great was their endeaver—their devotion coast, for which I shall start as soon as I ca were true.

There was nought they could not dare, and God bless our noble women!—they're a blessing on account of public duties. You ask if I Defense of Mississippi.

ers, saw proper to travel out of the record to stand why a Greenback party might be deemed and seventy-thousand who 'twas thought at the state state of the state and the state state of the state and the state state of the state s and protect the interest of her people; but under Brick Pomeroy and General Platt, are proved in the State of Mississippi is my mother, and abe claims my heart's warmest affections. demended that all should take the for from our fair and sunny the State of Mississiph is my mother, and also claims my heart's warmest affections,

The attack upon the fair fame of Mississsippi was made by a delegate from New Orleans, and it comes with a bad grace from a representative of this city to say one word derogatory to the character of Mississippi. That

State is one of our largest cotton producing States, and most of her valuable products

And mong those assigned to duty, near the Father of Creat Rivers.

We the a disagnified, the brave and galiant surpress Williams.

The cost quantity of produce shipped here by Mississippi planters enriches your city beyond calculation, adds to your exports, to your longered mentioned the mastered from Hinds, harm and tholone.

From Jufferson and Chiborne—the prope of many homes: ship of Sir Edward Packenham, and entrenched themselves in close proximity to your city. In Groenbackers I agree. Believing that paper the good fraction of the same and bet diers, the watchword given out was, "Beauty and Booty." When this was known, fear and to be the best paper money ever made. Green-Ever thoughtful of his men, in the camp and trembling took possession of every houshold, back money is a result of the war, and one And the jolly Parker, in the art of war well shilled.

Assessed in romand, the place could not be Fearn, Hickle, Boyd and Banks, and the Rev.
Dr. Lord.
Made up a field and staff as good as ever drew the sward.

And there was Thomas Markham, who could fight as well as pray.
Whose mane will be a household word forever and for aye:

hour of your extremity the American commander called for volunteers, and when the bugle notes first rang over the hills and valleys of Mississippi, her gallant sons rallied to the rescue. The great battle of the Sth of January was fought. The city was saved. And when General Jackson made his report to the Secretary of War, he used this memorable language: "The valor of the Mississippi soldiers under the leadership of the Ever active, never weary, in the hospital or samp,

As a chaplain, it was noted, he was the truest stamp;

As a chaplain, it was noted, he was the truest stamp; And there was Dr. Rice, who could cut a limb in two
With a coolness and dispatch, as if 'twere nothing new;
And there was gallant Calloway, who on Indian Mound, Fell valuantly contesting every inch of ground. There was Wolford, brave as Casar, who in Bank bonds were issued in violation of the

We forgive his later foibles, because of him we will maintain that faith inviolable. In all There, too, was James J. Cowan, commanding State and of the Union at large, Mississippi is Company G.,

A model man and battery as ever you did see;
There was Abbey, Bowman, Herrod—a trio tried

When Gen, Taylor commenced his march
When Gen, Taylor commenced his march were a unit. We were divided on the currenant-Colonel McClung, of Mississippi regiment, And there was Captain Turner, with his Chee-taw boys on hand,

Ready to do battle for their own, their South
At Buena Vista, when Gen. Taylor's army,

Eight well-equipped detachments, with Sergents brave in charge—
There is much to tempt you poet this topic to called a council of war, and to a Mississippian was assigned the post of danger. The lamented Quitman lead we cannot mention each who formed that gallant band,

So ready and so willing to defend their Southers and so willing to defend their Southers and so willing to defend their south. With the bullets from Mexican information as a bayen of the party whose views differ with driven from the party whose views differ with the majority upon it. If armed men are to be council of war, and to a Mississippian was assigned the post of danger. The lamented Quitman led the Palmete and New York regiments up the rugged ascent, with shells bursting driven from the party whose views differ with the majority upon it. If armed men are to be council of war, and to a Mississippian was assigned the post of danger. The lamented Quitman led the Palmete and New York regiments up the rugged ascent, with shells bursting did in New York, where, according to his boast-of the substrate of the table, and having occasion to follow the party whose views differ with the majority upon it. If armed men are to be council of war, and to a Mississippian was assigned the post of danger. The lamented Quitman led the Palmete and New York regiments up the rugged ascent, with shells bursting did in New York, where, according to his boast-of the post of danger.

So ready and so willing to defend their Souths are the majority upon it. If armed men are to be council of war, and to a Mississippian was assigned at the polls to influence elections in the majority upon it. If armed men are to be only to that place; and so with others who adjusted at the polls to influence elections in the county and the majority upon it. If armed men are to be only to that place; and so with others who adjusted at the polls to influence elections in the county and the majority upon it. If armed men are to be a daughter and a son, the latter some years and the majorit

"Breather there a man with soul so dead, that it was not repudiation to refuse to pay should come, the Greenbackers in Misof the public debt which would be acceptable

Political Issues.

HERNANDO, Miss., June 23, 1879. Mesors. W. B. Marshall and A. E. Priddy,

Charleston, Miss. : inviting me to deliver a political address at your necting to be hald on the 5th of July next, has been received, but I regret my inability to accept your invitation. I have taken professing our principles, springs up and depromises to be one of much interest and importance, but the condition of my health that my physicians have advised me to spend this summer in the mountains and on the seatrouble." I have watched the rise and pro-

THE WEST AND SOUTH

Success most be achieved," was what our persons so unjustly thrown upon my State. Mr. President, I was born in the State of good excess for debts, but I can see no good excess for such a party in a State like Mississippi, only separated from the State of Louisiana by the great artery of commerce of the Demogratic party is thoroughly comdiscounced the bandling recently brought forth in Ohio; some, under Ben Butler, are fiat money men, and hold to the ridiculous non-> paid as rapidly as possible—and that national bank notes shall be retired and their places supplied with paper money issued by the government direct. With this branch of result of the war that I am anxions to see preserved, and yet the Republican party, which prates so much about preserving the results of the war, would have destroyed this result if the Democratic party had not prevented it. While these vital differences of opinion exist among the Greenback party, and while in its infancy it has split in Ohio, the ask a party as old and long-tried as the Democracy to disband because some differences of opinion exist in its ranks on the currency party, as a party, through its organized source of power, the National Democratic Convention at St. Louis, declared itself in favor of what is called the hard-money platform, and that the soft-money Democrats obeyed the orders of the convention and yielded their dictates of party leaders. This is

PARTLY TRUE AND PARTLY UNTRUE, out if it were wholly true, it does not comon the field;

As a politician not so steady—as a soldier none more true—

We forgive his later faibles, because of him we will maintain that faith inviolable. In all sorbing questions with the Democracy at that time were retrenchment and reform in the general government and the restoration of local cy question, and when we selected as our most suitable leader a hard-money Democrat, every soft-money Democrat felt the necessity of so shaping our platform on the dividing issue as to represent the views of our candidate. The same condition of affairs still exists in the Democratic party, and when General Tom Ewing, the great leader of the soft-money Democrats, was nominated for governor of Ohio, Frank Hurd, the embodiment of hard-money in that State, not with servility, but with manly devotion to party, and a commendable determination not to contribute anything to Republican success, announced his intention to support the

PRITCHARD THE ENGINEER.

the Regiment.

Resident That the thanks of the survivors of the survivors of the regiment present are spared.

There were others just as gallant, but who still and of the regiment present are spared.

There were others just as gallant, but who still did not return blow for blow, whether in this Convention or chewhere. Is there a delegate here who would not doesn't have done?

There were others just as gallant, but who still did not return blow for blow, whether in this Convention or chewhere. Is there a delegate here who would not doesn't have done?

There were others just as gallant, but who still did not return blow for blow, whether in this Convention or chewhere. Is there a delegate here who would not doesn't have done?

The results of the survivors of the survivors of the regiment present are spared.

The results of the survivors of the regiment present are comrades shared.

The results of the survivors of the regiment present are comrades shared.

The results of the survivors of the regiment present are comrades shared.

The results of the survivors of the regiment present are comrades shared.

The results of the survivors of the survivor

GIVE UP LAMAR. who retains the worship of his friends and Hold of the brake-bar. On its way, After this defence of Mississippi, Col. Claisborne continued to discuss the State debt down the contended that this was a question which the Convention less the power and the right to settle. He pictured the power and the right to settle. He pictured the power of the agricultural classes; fold how burning the present operated the present opera erty of the agricultural classes; told how bur- for the present organization of the Demo-densome taxation had become, and maintained erabe party, and if such a division of parties ignited the great conflagration in Chicag

The resumption act would have destroye greenbacks and substituted national ban otes. The Democratic party in the forty fifth Congress saved greenbacks from destrucion and is on the high road to the retiring of national bank paper. The Republicans de-manded resumption in gold alone, which meant confiscation of the whole debtor class. The Democratic party restored silver as a money netal, and made resumption not only easy mands the fruits of our victory. We can greet them as friends whenever they work with us to promote the success of our com-mon principles, but we must treat them as common foe. But, in my judgment, Missis-sippi should look more in this canvass to State than to Federal issues. Any one who appreciates the rapid development of the northwest, through the instrumentality of railroads you say "we are confronted with a new party called Greenbackers, and while they are not very formidable now, if they can unite the old defunct radicals with the rise and upper to the state of Mississippi show what may be accomplished by energy, perseverence and plack. The State of Mississippi has wisely determined to incur no debt for public improvements, but During the debate in the Constitutional Convention on the State debt question, a delegate from New Orleans made an attack on the honor and good name of the State of Mississippi, as far as I have watched the rise and progress of the new party in Mississippi with much interest and some surprise. With most of the principles enunciated by the Green-honor and good name of the State will back party in Mississippi, as far as I have watched the rise and progress of the new party in Mississippi with much interest and some surprise. With most of the principles enunciated by the Green-honor and good name of the State will back party in Mississippi, as far as I have watched the rise and progress of the new party in Mississippi with much interest and some surprise. With most of the principles enunciated by the Green-honor and good name of the State will back party in Mississippi, as far as I have watched the rise and progress of the new party in Mississippi with much interest and some surprise. With most of the legislature who develops the best plan for the internal improvement of the State will back party in Mississippi, as far as I have watched the rise and progress of the new party in Mississippi with much interest and some surprise. With most of the legislature who develops the best plan for the legislature who develops the best plan of the principles enunciated by the Green-honor and good name of the State will back party in Mississippi with much interest and some surprise. With most of the principles enunciated by the Green-honor and good name of the State will back party in Mississippi with much interest and some surprise. With most of the principles enunciated by the Green-honor and good name of the State will be constituted by the Green-honor and good name of the State will be constituted by the Green-honor and good name of the State will be constituted by the Green-honor and good name of the State will be constituted by the Green-honor and good name of the State will be constituted by the Green-honor and good name she can and should devote her convict labor with a railroad from Memphis to Vic burg, through the center of the rich Mississippi swamp, and such cross-roads as are now being Laden with one long subbing mouning cry. built, the wealth of Mississippi will be more than doubled. This is one question that should One faint, far tone will waken, and will rise be considered in this canvass. You have an-

CONTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT roposing to change the time of holding State ections. This I think should be defeated so ong as the present United States election laws stand unrepealed. There is another now mooted question in the State as to whether the Legislature has a right to inknowledge than by a proper canvass before the people and a thorough discussion of all political topics by the candidates. Such a canvass, if properly conducted between honorable gentlemen, would not, in my judgment, I contribute to any dissensions in the Demotribute to the strengthening of the party, and State to determine which of the aspirants is best qualified to sustain its honor and deend its principles in the Senate of the Gen eral Government. Political science require

THE PROPLE HAVE A RIGHT TO KNOW ot only the exact views, but also the politica apacity of all who propose to represent them, and especially of those who aspire to repreent them for six years in the Senate of the enator is beyond the instruction of his State desire to see a personal canvass, but a gener-ous emulation of good men, all struggling for the success of the party, each for the high honor of proving himself most deserving the esteem and confidence of his fellow-laborers. There is work to be done, and when it is accomplished, I hope the laborer will be deemed worthy of his hire, that we shall not see fruit gathered by diligent toil poured into convictions on the currency question to the laps that have borne neither the heat nor the burden of the day.

Yours, respectfully, Not Dead But Sleeping.

Corinth Record. The Republican party of Mississippi is no dead, neither is it sleeping too sound to be aroused by the first blast upon the bugle horn of its vigilant leaders, who perceive with ex-treme satisfaction that the spirit of strife and discord is performing a work of destruction in the Democratic rank; which could never have been accomplished by an open, aggressive enemy. Whenever they conclude that the disintegration of the Democratic party has been consummated, the old Radical flag with hate and corruption inscribed upon it will be again unfurled, and the sable hosts will rally around it with all the blind devotion of former days and with nothing to oppose them but a party weakened by domestic quarrels and conflicts, the re-establishment of the infamous and blight-ing reign of Radicalism would be but an easy task.

The Colored Exodus in Bolivar County.

Memphis Avalanche, 3rd.] The negro exodus has struck Bolivar coun-Execute this genual member of the non-commissioned staff.

And last, but not the least, was our own old Company A.,

And last, but not the least, was our own old Company A.,

Whese gallant sons and deeds we'd remember her to-day;

With their cannon made of metal, that on Sabbatis used to ring.

With their cannon made of metal, that on Sabbatis used to ring.

Those Howitzers, Napoleons, now another song must sing:

Eight well-equipped detachments, with Serget in the eternal rocks stand; they stood as, the plantation of the majority, and will select both

THE PLATFORM AND THE CANDINATE, and all good Democrats will support him in preference to a Republican without regard to the eccond party leaving that place recently.

The negro exodus has struck Bolivar county, About thirty hands left the plantation of Major Stokes on Tuesday of this week, being the eternal rocks stand; they stood as, the three hundred 'stood at Thermopyle; they turned defeat into victory; they saved the American army.

On the march of Gen. Scott to the city of Major Stokes on Tuesday of this week, being the eternal rocks stand; they stood as, the three hundred 'stood at Thermopyle; they turned defeat into victory; they saved the American army.

On the march of Gen. Scott to the city of Major Stokes on Tuesday of this week, being the eccond party leaving that place recently.

The negro exodus has struck Bolivar county, About thirty hands left the plantation of Major Stokes on Tuesday of this week, being the eccond party leaving that place recently.

The negro exodus has struck Bolivar county, About thirty hands left the plantation of Major Stokes on Tuesday of this week, being the eccond party leaving that place recently.

The negro exodus has struck Bolivar county, About thirty hands left the plantation of Major Stokes on Tuesday of this week, being the eccond party leaving that place the plantation of Major Stokes on Tuesday of this week recently.

The negroe seem to be resolved to leave at all harder to the ectoud the eccond party leaving tha > a lesson from some facts gathered by Mr. Pul-sifier, of the Boston Herald, who quotes the statement that the people of the United States pay seven hundred million dollars a year for spiritness and fermented liquors and only forty-eight million dollars for religion. "I had no idea we were such a thirsty people," he says; "but I have heard a good deal of virtuous indignation expressed because church

Margaret J. Preston commentorates in spirited

Lay the huge bowlder. Quick as thought, erasping the throttle with a strain

Whether the mithful engineer (Braver or better none than he) Breathed as he stood there with his face Grand in its steadinst purpose set, showing the ordeal's awful frace Stamped on the rigid features yet. What did they find One hand a strain, Grasping the throttle with a clutch loser than death's, and one in vain eeing the bolt that pierced him thre Failed to unclasp it; so he died. lied at his post, as a brave man should, Shirking no duty, danger, strife; True to his trust, although it would Cost him-he saw it so-his life. These are the heroes, noblest far— Men who can meet without a fear Death, with their hands upon the bar,

Even as Pritchard the engineer!

LEXINGTON, VIRGINIA.

Clinching the brave-valve bar with such

Only with wrench of strength applied, pasts of grip they could undo

A BROKEN STRING.

-Margaret J. Preston.

Sing, and to you! No-no-with one note jarred
The harmony of Life's long chord is broken, Your words were light and by light lips were creeps over the system; then comes stupor, and then the end." spoken, An yet the music that you loved is marred,

One string, my friend, is dumb beneath your Strike and if throbs and vibrates at your will, Falters upon the verge of sound, and still 'alls back as sea waves shattered on the Touch it no more, for you shall not regain The sweet lost tone. Take what is left, or let Life's music sleep to Death. Let us forget The perfect melody we seek in vain—

And yet perchance, some day before we die, Around our windows, when we fain would

Above the great wave voice of mortal pain; Pand will touch hand and lips touch lips

As in the darkness it recedes and dies;-Or lingering in the summer evening glow, Then when the passion of the crimson west Burning like some great heart that cannot clection—the choice of a United States Sena-tor to succeed B. K. Bruce. In view of the Our dying youth, and set our hearts allows Generous Ruskin.

SHORT STOPS.

SHORT STOPS.

SHORT STOPS.

Is not a detective in the United States coinage birgits and scholarship, and flattered by the preference of so distinguished a man, accepted his offer. He questioned her, it is reported, as to the nature of her affection; expected, as to the nature of her affection; expected, as to the nature of her affection; expected, as to the nature of her affection; expected his offer. He questioned her, it is reported, as to the nature of her affection; expected his offer. He questioned her, it is reported, as to the nature of her affection; expected his offer. He questioned her, it is reported, as to the nature of her affection; expected his offer. He questioned her, it is reported, as to the nature of her affection; expected his own to be. As may be inferred, she answered in the affirmative, and doubtless believed very finally every syllable and observed in the affirmative, and doubtless believed very finally every syllable and the order of the very point of the very near being arrested for carrying the nature of the protective and Provision the different departments; and a good number of these were women. Of twenty-two graduates from the College of liberal arts, ten were ladies. Ten ladies also graduated in the school of the very two natures, then the resolution and the nature of the receive nature of these were women. Two ladies also graduated in the school of oratory, twenty-seven were women. Two ladies are more concerned about the nature of thirty-ince receiving diplomas from the school of oratory, twenty-seven were women.

A small boy threw a lump of ice at another to one the protective and Provisional and the school of oratory, twenty-seven were women. Two ladies graduated in the school of oratory, twenty-seven were women. Two ladies are not consistency, and to have them together at Oxford, but all right to have them together at Oxford, but all right to have them together at Oxford have them together at Oxford, but all right to have them together at Oxford have them togeth

Intel States, when, according to theory, the Senator is beyond the instruction of his State through her Legislature. I never was a believer in the Know-Nothing platform that the office should seek the man and not the many many the office, and still less on now. It is based upon the idea that some men are so very eftered in tone and elevated in purpose that is somewhat a condessension, if not a pollution for them to ask office after the manner of ordinary mortals. I am too much of a Removal of the work of the lable of Congress, some as State Senators, some as many worthy constructed in the perchaptic of all political positions, as editors of newspapers, where they must think quick and where their every-day thoughts stand recorded for or against them. It is to be hoped that all who desire to represent the State in the Senate will not only so amounce themselves but enter the coming cannass with vigor, and that he deleted on the percentage of present the State in the Senate will not only so amounce themselves but enter the coming cannass with vigor, and that he deleted on the proposal state of the senator of the school of sciences.

In London a Protective and Provident cannary, and the transmit of the canary, saying content that a can and a canary. The ent died. She had him stuffed and placed in the cage with the canary, saying content the canary saying content that the canary saying content the canary saying content that the canary saying content the canary saying content that the canary saying content the canary saying content the canary sayi not only so announce themselves but enter the coming canvass with vigor, and that he Ruskin fell head over heels, or heels over who is worthiest will be accepted. I do not desire to see a personal canvass, but a gener-without the least intent on their part. Ruskin himself is said to have perceived the fact, we don't believe we could eat 'em, no although the lovers had not been in the slightest indiscreet or conventional, or even to have intimated one to the other the condition tinued friendship and esteem, and of his and tells her it is a kiss.

ry, and announced his willingness, yea gladness, to assist the pair to a felicity they were obviously fitted for. Instead of putting any FRUITS OF MARRIAGE. obstacle in the way, he would remove the only one to their love and happiness-himself A Hindoo died; a happy thing to do, and he kept his word faithfully. Under the When fifty years united to a shrew. peculiar circumstances there was no trouble in obtaining a divorce. The matter was managed Before the gates of Brahma's paradise. said, "I have been married?" and he hung his head. lais, who is. They have proved to be from all accounts a most harmonious couple, and "Come in! come in! and welcome, too, my son!

I have been married?" and he hung his head. his abode in Tara's halls, and rebuild the "Soul of music shed."—Boston Post.

The Duke of Command. Work.

And this would be supplying a great want. We cannot answer all the points made by Octavius. A few more and we are done. Mr. S., "I for the result of the "letting down process." privately, without any scandal, and in due all accounts a most narmonious son! son! they are as much to one another to-day as Marriage and purgatory are as one." Ruskin continues to be the firm friend of both, visiting them regularly and sharing in a revisiting them regularly and sharing in a re-flected manner in their happiness—a fact which demonstrates the largeness and nobili-ty of Ruskin's nature. Millais' famous picthe negro exodus has struck Bolivar counhe negro exodus has struck Bolivar counAbout thirty hands left the plantation of or Stokes on Tuesday of this week, being of the plantation of being two of the plantation of but if Octavius insists, we will give specifications and proofs, which will be plain if not sat-bright thing without knowing it. The other day his sister had been enjoying an afternoon nap, and woke up just as supper was ready. She came to the table, and having occasion to reprove her brother for some breach of table.

command did fall,
Imparial, conceientious, kind and courteous unto all:
In war, as civit life, no duty he would shirk—Our brave, our gallant Captain—our accomplished Chancery Clerk.

And that interpid young Lieutenant, Frank Johnston is his name.
Who at Big Black and Chickasaw well won his solitor fame;
Also Robert Laucaster—genial, prompt and This brief, but honest tribute, to him is fully due;
And there was Allie Sharkey, though junior in learning to the same was allies Sharkey, though junior in learning to the same was allies Sharkey, though junior in learning to the same was allies sharkey, though junior in learning to the same was allies sharkey, though junior in learning to the same was allies sharkey, though junior in learning to the same was allies sharkey that the people of the Sattes have come very near to runing the States have come very near to runing the States have come of the States have come very near to runing the states and will estate the eliberty the states and will estandard or the sil

Do the Dying Suffer Pain. People do not like to think of death.

erse the brave act of Pritchard, the railroad It is an unpleasant subject; but it con- Boston Transcript.] engineer. This obscure here stuck to his en- stantly obtrudes itself, and there has Perhaps it is because of the growing Changed love's puregold to worthless dross gine near Cumberland, in Maryland, and lost been much speculation as to whether scarcity of available men, perhaps it is his life rather than let the train which he was running, with its passengers break in pieces by striking the obstacle on the track.

She suffered tortures all untelderations of the fair sex—whatever the reason, it there is little pain of either kind in is a fact patent to all who frequent.

She suffered tortures all untelderations of the fair sex—whatever the reason, it there is little pain of either kind in is a fact patent to all who frequent.

Her white face showed her misory. dying. Experience will come to us one of these days, but it will come too late to benefit those who remain. It seems to benefit those who remain. It seems to be a full to be to be a kind provision of nature that, did ten years ago, and it is greatly to How sad and bitter is the and as we approach the dread event our ter- the credit of our city that they can do A careless word, an ankind thought, rors diminish, and the coward and the bor die alike fearless, indifferent or by go out alone of an evening, but if action wall's foundation stone.

> "The rule is that unconsciousness, along in years it is not necessary to not pain, attends the final act. To the give exact figures-both feel comparasubject of it death is no more painful tively safe. The result is that young Baptist Record. than birth. Painlessly we come; men are not quite so much of a necessi- in Tun Cranton of June 25th, appears a rewhence we know not. Painlessly we go; whither we know not. Nature kindly provides an anaesthetic for the body when the spirit leaves it. Previous to that moment and in preparation for it, respiration becomes feeble, generally respiration becomes feeble, generally slow and short, often accompanied by long inspirations and short, sudden expirations, so that the blood is steadily less and less oxygenated. At the same time the heart acts with corresponding debility, producing a slow, feeble and often irregular pulse. As this process goes on, the blood is not only driven to the head with diminished force and less quantity, but what flows there is loaded more and more with carbonic acid gas, more and more with carbonic acid gas, edge, his character or his gentlemanly being a Wothedist, and the fact of Mr. Sullivan's

Dress of the Greeks.

About Women.

Sippings of Punch.

when the cyclones come.

ground.

A farmer on the shores of Lake On-Athers Letter in the Lewiston Journal.].

The distinguishing feature of the dress of males among the Greeks is a white cotton tunic or kilt, reaching nearly to the knee, and looking very much like a chain one.

A number of ladies have petitioned the knee, and looking very much like a chain one.

A number of ladies have petitioned the knee, and looking very much like a chain one.

A number of ladies have petitioned the knee, and looking very much like a chain one.

A number of ladies have petitioned the knee, and looking very much like a chain one.

A number of ladies have petitioned the knee, and looking very much like a chain one.

A number of ladies have petitioned the force of the last two sentences, we feel the force of the last two sentences, where the last two sentences, we feel the force of the last two sentences, where the last lateral very market to respect to the latera Athens Letter in the Lewiston Journal.]. plaited skirt. Over this is worn one former Woman's Hotel as a woman's we feet the force of the barshly cenand sometimes two jackets, usually plain hotel at reduced rates. but jaunty, and sometimes embroidered with gold lace, and around the waist is bound a shawl or belt, with the addition of many entertaining stories, published they have struck upon a wise policy. But we As half in dreams we hear the night wind in mountainous districts of a leather wal- in Lippincott's, St. Nicholas and else- one-group the matter. We are not disinterlet for a knife and provisions. The legs | where, lives in Iowa. are covered with tight, knit leggings and the feet with turned-up shoes, ending in a point, to which a tassel is fastened. The head is covered with a red skull cap, The head is covered with a red skull cap, strongest players in the world. with a flowing blue tassel. A shaggy white cloak, completes the costume. In the cities, however, European dress is largely adopted. The women of ladder, carried it to the house, mounted the state. Does any one believe not yet French fashions, wear a water put the fire out herself. Burning lake some great heart that earnor rest, Stains as with blood the waters as they flow.

Some old forgotten tones may rise and wake
Our dy'ng youth, and set our hearts affance
Our dy'ng youth, se to the body, and a loose pet- missioner of the Superior Court of Conicoat of gay colors. We must confess necticut. This is the first appointment that the costume is an exceedingly at- of a woman to an office of this kind in tractive one, and often compelled us to that State. look twice at the rather pretty young women whom we passed on the streets of Athens. In the interior, however, we found the women generally indulging in a dirty way around the shoulders, a dirtier short skirt, and still dirtier bare legs and feet. Many of their customs remind the traveler of Homer's description of their ancestors.

Between thirty and thirty-live, Ruskin metand was delighted with a very presty and graceful young woman, social position and nice culture. I should say he had fallen in love with, were he not of so peculiar a physical temperament. He admired her sufficients.

SHORT STOPS.

The Sultan of Turkey has instituted a new order for women, an order of Charities, "in recognition of the great services of ladies toward sick and suffering Turks during the late war. He has appointed Baroness Burdett-Cutts a member of this new legion of honor.

June 4 the Commencement of the Boston University took place. Diplomas were conferred on the graduates from the different departments; and a late of the contract here of the services of ladies toward sick and suffering Turks during the late war. He has appointed Baroness Burdett-Cutts a member of this new legion of honor.

June 4 the Commencement of the Boston University took place. Diplomas were conferred on the graduates from the different departments; and a late of the character of the services of ladies toward sick and suffering Turks during the late war. He has appointed Baroness Burdett-Cutts a member of this new legion of honor.

June 4 the Commencement of the Boston University took place. Diplomas were conferred on the graduates from the different departments; and a late of the foundation of the graduates are the facility of the foundation of the graduates are the facility of the foundation of the graduates are the facility of the foundation of the graduates are the facility of the fa wemen whom we passed on the streets

eaps for breakfast are of muslin, have mob crowns bordered with seant ruffles."

ployment notices, and to promote the in it, is to say what thoughtful people will not believe. In fact it appeals powerfully to human interests of women in all practicable under the believe. At this point, we introduce the follow-It doesn't tell how they are cooked, and way.s" matter how they were served up. After an enthusiastic lover spends two of their hearts. The author of "Modern hours' hard labor over a letter to his girl, does best when it is lead.

Painters" is as generous as he is chivairous. And then mars its bedding the did not, as ordinary men would have done, drop of ink on it, he first swears in a Mayhogany way you can fix it. Painters" is as generous as he is chivalrons, and then mars its beauty by spilling a fly into a jealous rage, nor did he have a scene with his wife. He told her gently what very scientific manner for a few moments, he had perceived and assured her of his con- and then draws a circle around the blot earnest desire to promote her happiness at any price. She turned crimson at the words, as if they had been a revelation to her own friend said. "By Jove, that's the smallsoul, which in part they may have been. She est man I ever saw in my life!" " Really!" could not believe the thing possible at first—the surprises of the heart are usually overwhelming—but very soon she acknowledged the truth, and the painter did likewise. The critic condemned himself for dullness in think- dear fellow, I know a man so small that mg a Platonic marriage natural or satisfacto- if he has a pain he can't tell whether he

"Hast been through purgatory?" Brahm:

He scarce had entered in the gardens fair, then?" Thou canst not enter!" did the god reply. All that is true, but he has married been, And so on earth has suffered for all sin." Married? 'Tis well, for I've been married Begone! We'll have no fools in Paradise." | plained.

thing when I find myself in a place like this as somebody else?"

Premising that the Russian Arctic Expedition which cost $678,000 discovered a new kind of moss and saw a superscript of the few travelers who succeeds in going through the country without getting his trunk pasted all over with hotel cards.

"Isn't my poetry of a high order?"

It is rumored that the elephant is one truly glorious when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work, and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work and when it addresses itself to doing the highest grade of work and when it addresses itself t

'Who says that science doesn't pay?" A Broadway druggist, recollecting the ret with a lot of it. the eye and a shame to the wearer. . fountain: "In soda, sanitas."

following actiny in the columns of the daily

A strong thick wall, though all unseen;

None knew when the first stones were had, Nor how the wall was built, I ween. And so their lives were wide apart,

Although they shared one board, one bed : A eareless eye saw naught amiss. Women's Growing Independence of Men. He, much almorbed in work and gain,

Grew soon unmoudful of his loss:

resigned. As to physical pain, Dr. Ed-ward H. Clark, in "Visions," says: pecially if one of the pair be tolerably "The Destructive Policy of the State University.

a powerful anæsthetic, the same as taken from charcoal. Subject to its influence the nerve centers lose consciousness and sensibility, apparent sleep creeps over the system; then comes and then the comes and then the comes are taken from the comes are th the same time a good citizen, we are sorry for them. Octavius remarks:

On a capital of 15 cents a Philadelphia woman built up a business, the quiries in pointing out the crits without show-sure Mr. S. and his colleagues. They, no doubs, have done, from time to time, what they thought ed. We are interested for general education the higher classes who have to the roof, and with a dozen pails of that it is good to bring together hundreds of hoys in their teens removed from home influen-

The Sultan of Turkey has instituted are most preditably informed. We cannot be-which is contrary to the facts, and a little disinterested inquiry would have shown him so. He A pen may be driven, but the pencil A pig born in May does not turn into Mayhogany way you can fix it.

A good many men would have more than at present should they earn half that they yearn.

It is hard to believe a man is telling the truth when you know you would lie if in his place.

ation." This remark of his bears absurding upon its face, we respectfully submit. How is it that the conceives the idea that the high school is part of the University and yet is not supported like the University? The fact is that the University, including of course the Preparatory Department or high school, is supported by a donation from Congress, and is not supported by taxation nor by the State of Mississippi, as he can easily know by reference to the law upon the subject."

Let us see about the absurdity of our statement. Congress donates a familiar formation.

A grocer advertised in the following and supporting a University, not a High School terse manner: "Hams and cigarssmoked and unsmoked."

There isn't much romance in the existence of a member of a hose company—his life is too reel.

Missouri farmers are reported to be

Intended to be used, when a preparatory school is supported. If we are mistaken on this selection that it is legitimate to use this fund to establish one High School it would be to establish a dozen or any number. And if the rate of board at Oxford and the travelling expenses are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with tuition from the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with tuition from the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with tuition from the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with tuition from the costs are so great than the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with tuition from the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with tuition from the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with tuition from the costs are so great than the costs are so great than the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with tuition the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with tuition the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with tuition the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with tuition the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go there with the costs are so great that it costs a boy more to go the cost and the cost are so great the costs are so gre driving posts into the ground to hang to free than to patronize other schools and pay inition, we see a solution of the trouble. Estabhen the cyclones come.

lish High Schools in ten or a dozen places in the State. The amount expended on the one at Oxford would make a good start in such a calls for the proof of the "letting down process."

Does he really wish the proof? To the thoughtful mind to which quality is better than quantity, the proof lies in the fact that a great mass tario has had nine acres washed away in twenty years. He evidently loses of gross material is mixed with that which is more refined. Under such conditions the ton-be for him in later years to make both isfactory.

As to what is said about our fuely, no one A smart up-town boy lately informed his grandfather that he didn't like to

The Trustees wish well to all the high schools hear him joke; "its bad-in-age," he ex- in the State, and bid Clinton College God Well, we are glad to know it, but there is a

She came to the table, and having occasion to reprove her brother for some breach of table etiquette—elder sisters are great sticklers for etiquette—elder sisters are great s sorrel-colored fox, the Detroit Free asked a spring poet, indignantly, when it didn't appear in the paper. "It is, "Who says that science doesn't pay?" asked a spring poet, indignantly, when it didn't appear in the paper. "It is, "replied the editor, recollecting producing any thing its correspondent may that he saw his wife papering the gar- wish to see in our columns.

Latin compliment to the product of the vineyard, "In vineyard," has put up this inscription to the credit of his soda on ribbons and furbelows and see that not worse than a seedy last year's bonthe feet are properly cared for.